- We hold licenses or authorizations from one or more states to provide lawful and ethical adoption services.
- We provide services through licensed and credentialed professionals—such as social workers, counselors, and legal experts—who meet the standards of their respective disciplines and comply with all applicable state and federal regulations.
- We serve expectant parent(s) without coercion or pressure to choose adoption and provide resources and referrals to life-affirming organizations for expectant parent(s) not choosing adoption.
- We offer all our services in accordance with Christ-centered principles and with orthodox Christianity.
