

Processing Grief and Loss in the Workplace

Brand: Heartbeat Academy
Product Code: 1203

Price: $14.95

Short Description

In pregnancy medical clinic ministry work, there are many losses that we grieve on a daily basis. Whether it be a personal loss, experiencing grief after a client chooses abortion, lack of connection with a client or coworker, disrespect from the pro-choice supporters, or loss of productivity due to compassion fatigue. These situations must be grieved and addressed in a productive way to increase morale and maintain a mission-focused environment.

Presented by Vernicia Green

Description

In pregnancy medical clinic ministry work, there are many losses that we grieve on a daily basis. Whether it be a personal loss, experiencing grief after a client chooses abortion, lack of connection with a client or coworker, disrespect from the pro-choice supporters, or loss of productivity due to compassion fatigue. These situations must be grieved and addressed in a productive way to increase morale and maintain a mission-focused environment.

Presented by Vernicia Green