

When They Are No Longer Under Your Roof: Phase 2 Housing

Brand: Heartbeat Academy
Product Code: 161

Price: $14.95

Short Description

This training includes a brief presentation outlining the types of support that housing programs are offering for women as an ongoing and transitional extension of their work. In addition, the webinar will include time for dialogue on types of initiatives that programs have used to maintain relationship with women after they have left the home.

Description

This training includes a brief presentation outlining the types of support that housing programs are offering for women as an ongoing and transitional extension of their work. In addition, the webinar will include time for dialogue on types of initiatives that programs have used to maintain relationship with women after they have left the home.

Course published in 2021